PRESIDENTIAL PAPER DOLL

The job of a U.S. President is really six jobs in one. You could say that a President wears six hats, one for each area of responsibility.

1. Chief Executive
2. Chief of State
3. Chief Diplomat
4. Commander-In-Chief
5. Chief Agenda-Setter
6. Party Leader

Your Task:

- "Dress" your paper doll to represent ONE role of the president
- You must also provide the doll with a proper hat
- You should also give "props" to your doll that represent things he does in that role (ex: powers and duties)
- On the back of your doll, you should explain your choices and what they represent

The Rules:

- Be Creative
- Be Respectful/Appropriate
- Have Fun!

Your Grade: The Rubric (This rubric must be attached to your doll or you will lose 10 points!)

QUALITY of Your Doll: (we don't want the President looking like a slob)
• doll's wardrobe and props are neat and overall project is complete	/10
• Description of doll's wardrobe and props is complete and appropriate	/30
ACCURACY of Your Doll:
• wardrobe and props accurately match chosen presidential role	/10
• Clothing pieces clearly illustrate chosen role	/10
• Includes a hat that represents the role	/10
• Includes at least 3 props to represent powers or duties specific to the role	/20
CREATIVITY of Your Doll:
• Creativity is demonstrated in the design of your doll's wardrobe and props	/10
TOTAL POINTS	/100

PRESIDENTIAL PAPER DOLL

The job of a U.S. President is really six jobs in one. You could say that a President wears six hats, one for each area of responsibility.

1. Chief Executive
2. Chief of State
3. Chief Diplomat
4. Commander-In-Chief
5. Chief Agenda-Setter
6. Party Leader

Your Task:

- "Dress" your paper doll to represent ONE role of the president
- You must also provide the doll with a proper hat
- You should also give "props" to your doll that represent things he does in that role (ex: powers and duties)
- On the back of your doll, you should explain your choices and what they represent

The Rules:

- Be Creative
- Be Respectful/Appropriate
- Have Fun!

Your Grade: The Rubric (This rubric must be attached to your doll or you will lose 10 points!)

QUALITY of Your Doll: (we don't want the President looking like a slob)
• doll's wardrobe and props are neat and overall project is complete	/10
• Description of doll's wardrobe and props is complete and appropriate	/30
ACCURACY of Your Doll:
• wardrobe and props accurately match chosen presidential role	/10
• Clothing pieces clearly illustrate chosen role	/10
• Includes a hat that represents the role	/10
• Includes at least 3 props to represent powers or duties specific to the role	/20
CREATIVITY of Your Doll:
• Creativity is demonstrated in the design of your doll's wardrobe and props	/10
TOTAL POINTS	/100